

Mobilization/Marketing Coordinator

These statements describe our team and the people who fit best in our culture:

- You love Jesus and have a vibrant relationship with him.
- You are passionate about being a part of the Great Commission among the Unreached!
- You are driven to make an eternal difference with your life!
- You are self motivated and sacrifice to do your best work for Him!
- You are a team player, able to joyfully submit to the strengths of others!
- You are comfortably uncomfortable with putting yourself in a position of total dependence on God.

We are currently looking for a Mobilization Coordinator. Does this describe you?

- You find it meaningful to cultivate ways for everyday people to be deeply involved in the great commission among the unreached.
- You are a maximizer, ready to develop, guide and evaluate the mobilization strategy of Activate, including:
 - Developing & executing the annual mobilization strategy.
 - Guiding the digital elements of; email, social media, SMS, web, print mailers and annual reports.
 - Working with International and Involvement groups to help prepare funding project proposals.
 - Steward the digital elements of giving campaigns.
- You are eager to serve with both the international and involvement departments, bringing stories from the field to our followers and giving partners.
- You are a leader and desire to grow in your leadership capacity, ready to support team members who will serve with you to accomplish team outcomes.
- You can steward annual and quarterly projects through project management skills!
- You are able and ready to travel overseas 1-2 times per year to capture content and guide the creative team!
- You enjoy utilizing technology to make work most effective and are not intimidated by learning new software to do so.

A Note on Next Steps:

If you are interested in this role, we'd love to hear from you through this form.